GREENSBORO

College of Visual and Performing Arts

June 7, 2017

Dear Friends of the College of Visual and Performing Arts,

I am writing to invite you to join us for the 2017-2018 University Concert and Lecture Series at UNCG, and to offer you a special subscription benefit.

You can look forward to a world-class roster of guest artists and ensembles for the upcoming season, beginning with an extraordinary production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's hit musical South Pacific, a collaborative production between UNCG and Triad Stage. Grammy-nominated Rhiannon Giddens then kicks off the University's 125th Anniversary year with a Founder's Day concert in the University Auditorium. Next up is the Juilliard String Quartet, long regarded as one of the eminent chamber ensembles of our time.

We will welcome the American modern dance luminary Jose Limón Dance Company, and visual artists Sanford Biggers and Ann Hamilton. The season will conclude with performances by cellist, Lynn Harrell.

Before we open the box office to the public, we would like to offer you the chance to purchase a season subscription – with priority choice of seating.

Here's the best part – if you purchase two season subscriptions, we will gladly give you a third subscription at no cost. But you have to make your purchase by August 1, 2017.

The Triad Stage Box Office handles ticket sales for the series. Be sure to tell them you would like your free third subscription when you place your order, by phone, at 336.272.0160 between the hours of 12 and 6pm, Monday through Friday.

We are grateful for your important support for UNCG, and look forward to seeing you throughout the year at the University Concert and Lecture Series.

Sincerely,

Your University Concert and Lecture Series
